

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION AGLOW INTERNATIONAL AND ITS PRESIDENT JANE HANSEN HOYT COMMIT TO PRAY FOR UNITED STATES PRESIDENT-ELECT BARACK OBAMA

Seattle, November 5, 2008

"We congratulate Barack Obama, the new president-elect of the United States and commit to pray for him and his family, as we have done in behalf of our leaders for decades. As a worldwide women's ministry with thousands of members across the U.S., we are also praying for two crucial issues he will face that, we believe, will have an effect on our nation for generations: Support for the nation of Israel, and the appointment of U.S. Supreme Court justices. May he make those decisions with wisdom and a desire to seek righteousness."

– Jane Hansen Hoyt

Aglow International is a worldwide women's ministry based in Seattle consisting of more than 200,000 core members made up of women who meet locally in more than 170 countries. Together, these women minister to an estimated 17 million people around the world each year. For more information, visit www.Aglow.org.

– 30 –

MEDIA CONTACTS:

Vicki Morgan 469.774.6377

vicki@alarryross.com

Alicia Perry 972.267.1111

alicia@alarryross.com