

Darwin's Plantation: Evolution's Racist Roots Ken Ham and A. Charles Ware

“Racism is a consequence of sin in a fallen world infused with evolutionary thinking.”

Page 111

“Now, don't get the idea that evolution is the cause of racism. Sin is the cause of racism. But Darwinian evolution fueled a particular form of racism by giving individuals and the masses a scientific excuse to pursue this godless philosophy by using evolution as justification for discrimination, abuse, and even mass genocide.”

Page 91

On the American South after the Civil War:

“Without the legal ability to enforce slavery, many people turned to the theories of Darwin to justify racism in its many forms. They began to use evolution as justification of their views that African Americans were an inferior ‘race’ and a ‘sub-species’ that was not really fully human and not deserving of fair and equal treatment.”

Page 42

“Although racism did not begin with Darwinism, Darwin did more than any person to popularize it. After Darwin ‘proved’ that all humans descended from apes, it was natural to conclude that some races had descended further than others. In his opinion, some races (namely white ones) have left the others far behind, while other races (pygmies especially) have hardly matured at all.”

Page 22

“The word ‘racism,’ of course, has its roots in ‘race,’ the concept that there are distinct racial groups throughout the world: Asia, Europe, the Middle East, South America, and so on. But did you know that the concept of human races is not found in the Bible? The philosophy of racism, therefore, is alien to Scripture and originated with men.”

Pages 30-31

“We all need to treat every human being as our relative. We are of one blood. All of us are equal in value before our Creator God.”

Page 115