

Daystar Original Programming

 Celebration Marcus and Joni Lamb, founders of Daystar Television Network, create the perfect hosting combination in “Celebration,” an hour-long program which features interviews and testimonies from key authors, business and faith leaders, professional athletes, actors, actresses and many more.

With such a diverse cultural and industry line-up, “Celebration” provides the viewer with both light-hearted entertainment and thought-provoking discussion, not to mention inspirational musical performances from Joni and the Daystar band. Guests in the past have included Dr. Phil and Robin McGraw, former Korn band member Brian “Head” Welch and actor Kirk Cameron, to name a few.

“Celebration” strives to spread the Gospel to every part of the earth and is currently broadcast in Africa, Asia, the Middle East, Europe, Australia, North America, South America, the nation of Israel and Hong Kong.

 Joni There is never a dull moment on “Joni,” a half-hour talk show hosted and produced by Joni Lamb, co-founder of the Daystar Television Network. The “Joni” show, which airs five days a week, takes on tough issues, discusses the moral gray areas, and features interviews and testimonies from a variety of guests while focusing on the importance and relevance of the Gospel in today’s society.

Joni is both genuine and dynamic as she engages viewers while discussing issues of eternal significance. The “Joni” show has hosted guests including Dr. Phil, Shelley Lubben, Dr. Jim Garlow and former Korn band member, Brian “Head” Welch.

In 2004 it was awarded the Best Television Talk Show by the prestigious organization of National Religious Broadcasters and is currently syndicated on ABC Family.

 Check the Sound “Check the Sound” is a half-hour show, hosted by Rachel, Rebecca and Jonathan Lamb, that features contemporary Christian music, live performances and candid one-on-one interviews. On Friday and Saturday nights, the Lamb children bring today’s top artists and entertainment programming to viewers across the country and around the world.

The show features a variety of genres including Christian rock, rap and pop. Guests featured on “Check the Sound” have included Jeremy Camp, Barlow Girl, Building 429, Real Vision, Skillet, Article One, Gateway Worship, Grits and LeCrae.

"Marcus Lamb Ministries" is a program on Daystar Television Network that features preaching and teaching by Daystar's CEO and co-founder Marcus Lamb. Marcus travels the globe, ministering with great sensitivity to the listeners with an emphasis on praying at the altars and moving in the gifts of the Spirit. Through this program, Marcus works toward his goal to see people saved, healed and revived with the fire of God.

Inspiration and great music are the two resounding themes of Daystar's "Gospel Music Showcase." This program brings viewers a comprehensive line-up of performers from one of Christian music's most beloved genres.

"Gospel Music Showcase" has hosted artists including Kirk Talley, formerly of the Dove award-winning group The Talley Trio, and Gospel Music Association Hall of Fame inductees The Imperials.

