

a.larry.ross
com.mu.ni.ca.tions

interview availability

4300 Marsh Ridge Road • Suite 114 • Carrollton, TX 75010
972.267.1111 • 972.267.3535 (fax) • www.alarryross.com

FOR INFORMATION, CONTACT:

A. Larry Ross Communications

Julie Shutley 972.267.1111

julie@alarryross.com

Monica Sales 972.267.1111

monica@alarryross.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Vujicic Offers Personal Experience about Bullying, Fear, How to Respond

As White House Holds First Conference on Preventing Bullying, Nick Vujicic shares how childhood fears make lifelong impact

WHAT:

Today, President Obama will be holding a day-long conference on bullying and how communities can help prevent bullying and deal with its consequences. Nick Vujicic, who was born without arms or legs, is available to share his story and offer advice to help others in similar circumstances.

“I am armless but not harmless, because I have learned how to not let fear own me and rule my life,” Vujicic said. “In life, we must conquer our fears and move on so that we don’t become paralyzed by it.”

WHO:

Nick Vujicic was born in 1982 without arms or legs, but despite what some may call impossible circumstances, he has discovered that God had a plan and purpose for his life. After founding a motivational speaking company, Attitude is Altitude, Nick began the non-profit ministry Life Without Limbs to “cross boundaries and break down barriers, to build bridges that bring people to the love and hope found in Jesus Christ.” He recently authored “Life Without Limits: Inspiration for a Ridiculously Good Life.” (Doubleday Religion)

WHEN:

By appointment.

WHERE:

In-studio based on current travel schedule or by phone.

DETAILS:

“Life Without Limits: Inspiration for a Ridiculously Good Life,” is an inspiring book by an extraordinary man. Now an internationally successful motivational speaker, his central message is that the most important goal for anyone is to find their life’s purpose despite whatever difficulties or seemingly impossible odds stand in their way.

Vujicic tells the story of his physical disabilities and the emotional battle he endured dealing with them as a child, teen and young adult. “For the longest, loneliest time, I wondered if there was anyone on earth like me, and whether there was any purpose to my life other than pain and humiliation,” he said.

He shares how his faith in God has been his central source of strength and explains that once he found his own sense of purpose—inspiring others to make their lives and the world better—he found the confidence to build a rewarding and productive life without limits.

He also devotes a chapter to fear, describing how one particular instance with a high school bully taught him about how to deal with fear.

“There are many handicaps worse than having no arms and legs – fear can be especially debilitating,” Vujicic wrote. “You cannot live a fulfilling life that fully expresses your blessings if fear controls your every decision.”

For more information or to arrange an interview, please contact Julie Shutley at 972.267.1111 or via e-mail at julie@alarryross.com. Additional information about Vujicic is available at <http://www.alrcnewskitchen.com/nickvujicic>.