Why Don't Christians In the U.S. Experience Miracles?

Author Jason Frenn Says Prayer Is Key to Achieving Dramatic Results

WHAT: Jason Frenn, author of "The Seven Prayers God Always Answers: God's Promises for Everyone, Everywhere, Every Time," believes that spending more time with God in prayer is one of the keys to experiencing miracles in our lives.

Frenn, an evangelist who frequently visits Latin America, says Christians in the developing world place more emphasis on their relationship with God, leading to miraculous results. Frenn is available to speak to his experience overseas and the differences between this and his U.S. ministry.

WHO: Jason Frenn has written two other books, "Breaking the Barriers" and "Power to Reinvent Yourself."

A popular conference speaker for churches, nonprofit organizations and business audiences, Frenn is the founder of Taking It to the Nations and Power to Change International. He has held more than 50 evangelistic crusades in Latin America and the U.S. He is a frequent guest on "Hour of Power."

Although he grew up in a home plagued with alcoholism and divorce, he was able to break his family's cycle of dysfunction and today offers biblical counsel to people facing life's problems.
