

FIREPROOF MINISTRIES

Fireproof Ministries, founded by Craig Gross, exists to bring people to the Lord as well as train and develop people to meet the unmet needs of the world through culturally relevant programs and ideas. Under the umbrella of Fireproof Ministries are the following organizations and current projects:

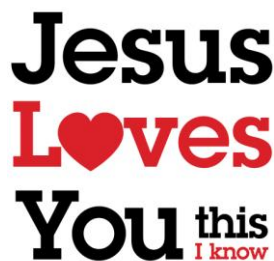

XXXchurch.com is a revolutionary Web network that exists to help those who are in over their heads with pornography, both consumers and those in the sex industry. Launched in 2002, the site combines the seedy with the sacred to present an alternative to pornography.

The Strip Church was created to let Las Vegas residents and tourists now that Jesus loves Sin City. The church travels around to Las Vegas hot spots to show love and support to its neighbors and even operates a shuttle that provides free rides to people anywhere on the strip. In 2010, it will start a Sunday church service/show in a prominent theater in the heart of Las Vegas. More info is available at www.stripchurch.com.

Heartsupport.com is an online community that provides visitors with conversation, while supplying real help on the issues of addiction, depression, eating disorders, self injury and suicide. The stories shared through the Web site not only show people that they are not alone in their struggles, but that they can become empowered, overcome them and help others along the way.

A current project of Fireproof Ministries, “Jesus Loves You ... This I Know,” is a new book by pastors Gross and Jason Harper that seeks to share Jesus’ love with everyone, no matter who they are or what they have done. Coinciding with six different chapters in the book, the authors have planned an unconventional national tour that will take them to six cities across the nation, connecting them with six specific groups of people that have often been neglected by the Church.
