

1. In the book, you say Jesus' message has been sabotaged and hijacked from inclusion to exclusion. What do you mean by that?
2. How did you come up with the different groups of people that you based the chapters on, such as "Jesus Loves the Porn Star" and "Jesus Loves the Religious?"
3. How did you and your co-author come up with the idea to write this book? What is the most important message in this book?
4. Why do the words "Jesus Loves You" hold so little value in our culture today? How can that change?
5. What was your motive behind planning the national tour that coincides with the book? What stop are you most looking forward to and which will challenge you the most?
6. You have already been to the first tour stop at Westboro Baptist Church that ties into the chapter titled "Jesus Loves the Religious." Doesn't it seem obvious that Jesus would love the religious? Why dedicate a whole chapter and tour stop for this?
7. In your opinion, why are so many people disconnected from Jesus' love?
8. How do you erase the rules surrounding the skeptics' perception of being a Christian?
9. Do you see gluttony – overindulgence – as a major factor in the demise of America today?
10. What do you think is the single-most important factor when connecting with people about Jesus?
11. Are you ever criticized for your bold approach to ministry?
12. What is the next step for formerly disconnected, skeptical or bitter people that come to understand and accept the unconditional love of Jesus?
